I use Young Living Essentials Oils because they are therapeutic grade, of high-quality, and are vibrationally (energetically) excellent. I have been using Young Living essential oils in my healing practice and for my own healing for the past decade.

Young Living sells directly to the customer. To purchase their products, you can visit <https://www.youngliving.com> and start shopping right now as a Customer - you will need a referring member's number to do this - my number is #672848, Member Name: Robin Hallett. Please note: if there are two fields asking for sponsor id and enroller id, enter the same number twice.

If you think you will be ordering on a regular basis, there are other types of memberships to consider: become a Preferred Customer or a membership as an Independent Distributor.

The Preferred Customer option: save 12% on purchases and you are not required to purchase a membership. To keep your Preferred Customer status, you are required to make a minimum $50 monthly order in an essential rewards auto ship program.

My own purchases are made as an Independent Distributor for several reasons:

1. I receive wholesale pricing on all purchases (a 24% discount).
2. I do not need to meet monthly requirements for purchases as I would with a Preferred Customer membership.
3. To keep my membership active, I need only purchase $50 in products in a 12 month period.
4. Should I ever refer customers to Young Living, I can receive commissions. This commission process is explained here: https://www.youngliving.org/pdfs/comp_plan.pdf

The Customer option is totally free and clear of membership obligations, and there is no minimum monthly issue. Purchases are made at full price.

If you are ready to create an account to make purchases, here is the link that helps you get going: http://www.youngliving.com/en_US/abundance/become-member.html

1. Click become a member.
2. Choose Customer, Preferred Customer, or Independent Distributor.
3. You will be asked to enter my Sponsor ID and Enroller ID: 672848 (same number, both fields)
4. If you choose the Independent Distributor membership, you are required to purchase a one-time membership kit called "Start Living Kits". There are several kits to choose from. All kits come with the same basic information about the program, and have free samples and cd's. I recommend the one called "Start Living with Everyday Oils. Essentially, it is the basic $40 starter kit with 9 additional essential oils in 5ml bottles that average $12.00 each. (I chose this one when I started because many of these oils cannot be purchased singly in that size- and it is a nice way to get your feet wet with some popular and very useful oils).

5. Please know that the Young Living company always runs a monthly special. These are big specials where you get sometimes more than $80 in products free - usually a 10ml roll on and a 15 ml oil free when you spend $165.00 which is easy to do the first order. So check it out to take advantage. I often save up my shopping list until I have enough to qualify for the specials. And, if I have more on my shopping list than is required to get the special, I make two purchases. It really pays to be savvy!

It is also easy to sign up over the phone:

Monday–Friday 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. US MT, Saturday 7:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. US MT, 1-800-371-3515

A few other tid-bits:

I like the feelings kit a lot and use it regularly with clients, and personally.

I have learned that signing up in the "essential rewards" fashion (this is that auto-ship program I mentioned before) is my best option and value, because I earn points and pay a reduced shipping fee. Those points add up to free items! While you cannot use "essential rewards" system to sign up initially, you can set this option for yourself in the future. To learn more: http://www.youngliving.com/en_US/abundance/essential-rewards.html

If you don't feel clear on the information here, please call the company directly. In my experience, they bend over backwards to help you understand and they really care about helping you choose your best options. They can also sign you up over the phone if you'd like.
